IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON
FOR THE COUNTY OF COLUMBIA

James D. Huffman, and City of St. Helens
Oregon, by and through James D. Huffman, a taxpayer, in Trust for the Taxpayers of the City of St. Helens Oregon,
PLAINTIFFS,
Vs.
Amy Lindgren, Samuel Erskine and City of St. Helens,
DEFENDANTS.

Case No 21CV00852

COMPLAINT

Claim Not Subject to Mandatory Arbitration

Filing fee Established by ORS 21.160 Tort

Action

Amount in Controversy $100,000

Comes now Plaintiff and makes this complaint against the defendants as follows:

Plaintiff, in his individual capacity, is a taxpayer and citizen of Columbia County Oregon and the City of St. Helens. Plaintiff is bringing this action as a private individual, and as a taxpayer and private attorney general on behalf of the taxpayers of the City of St. Helens. Any and all damages awarded which arises from this representative capacity should become the rightful property of the citizens of the City of St. Helens and used for civic purposes for City Parks and youth sports.

The City of St. Helens Oregon maintains a pretext of a municipal court but in truth and in fact it is an administrative office of the City of St. Helens within the City executive department.

Defendant Amy Lindgren is the department head of this department, and her direct supervisor is

1 defendant Matthew Brown, both of whom exercise joint control over the operation of the judicial 2 department. Amy Lindgren is unlawfully employed by the City of St. Helens and she is not 3 legally authorized to perform any of the duties that she purports to perform. She is fraudulently
4 usurping, under a false pretext, a position that she claims is the office of a municipal judge. In 5 truth and in fact, she is nothing more than a member of the executive department of the City of 6 St. Helens. She serves solely at the unfettered discretion of the City Council as a member of the 7 executive branch of government of the City of St. Helens, she is directly under the control of 8 defendant Matthew Brown, and she may be terminated at any time with or without cause by the 9 City of St. Helens. In accordance with the executive authority granted to her by defendant
10 Brown, she has exercised authority to direct department staff to expend city resources at her
11 whim and unfettered direction and control. This complaint seeks to recover illegal expenditures
12 authorized and directed by her, that is completely outside of any public duties of any staff
13 members of the City of St. Helens, with or without city council direction.

15 The City of St. Helens charter has made provision for the purported municipal court department 16 to be a court of record, to follow all state laws in the operation of a court system, which includes 17 the Oregon Constitution which requires all judges to be elected, and which prohibits persons 18 from holding position in different branches of government, those branches being the legislative, 19 executive and judicial branches, and which prohibits one person from holding more than one
20 public office. The defendant Lindgren was not qualified to be employed in any capacity as a 21 judicial officer in the judicial branch of the city, (if there was truly such a branch) and in 22 addition, she serves and or served, at relevant times herein, as a public prosecutor for the City of

1 Happy Valley Oregon, which is an office in the executive Branch of government, thus preventing 2 her from performing duties in the other two branches of government, and she also holds several 3 offices as a purported Municipal Court Judge in other municipalities in the State of Oregon, 4 which violates the constitutional provision prohibiting one person from holding multiple 5 lucrative public offices. The City of St. Helens has by ordinance adopted all of the state 6 misdemeanor statutes governing criminal laws, and the entirety of the state traffic code, the 7 direct result of which makes all of these constitutional provisions fully applicable to all of the 8 actions of the City and of its purported public officers and agents which are complained of in this 9 complaint.

11 On or about calendar year 2018, defendant Lindgren began receiving lucrative salary from the 12 City of St. Helens, and continuing through the present, all of which she was not legally 13 authorized to receive, due to her unconstitutional holding of multiple disqualifying offices, which 14 she continues to hold throughout the period of time alleged in this complaint, and the defendant
15 Lindgren should be required to disgorge, refund and repay all of the illegal payments to the 16 taxpayers of the City of St. Helens.

18 On January 3, 2019, plaintiff appeared at the Municipal Court and orally informed Defendant
19 Lindgren that she was being disqualified from hearing a case concerning a client of the plaintiff,
20 and that as a result she was not allowed to hear any matter or proceeding regarding the citizen.
21 Defendant Lindgren, who at that time was no longer a judge in any sense of the word, insisted on 22 dealing with the case she was no longer involved in, even as a usurper, and she placed a cail with

1 a person who had been qualified and accepted as a pro tem judge in St. Helens. He was not at his 2 phone. She then illegal, and without any authority, set the matter over for one week, over the 3 strong protest of the plaintiff, who indicated to her that she could not hear a motion for her 4 disqualification, and that she was required by law to indicate if she objected to the 5 disqualification, and if did, a neutral judge had to try the matter and that she was not allowed to 6 sit in judgment of her own disqualification. As a matter of Oregon law, a judge may not be a 7 judge when she herself is a party to the dispute.

8 Defendant Lindgren never filed any objection to the disqualification, and attempted to 9 usurp a judicial position that she was not qualified to occupy, all of which was objected to by the 10 plaintiff.

12 On January 10, 2019, defendant, ordered the plaintiff handcuffed by the St. Helens Police, who 13 she had secretly summoned, and usurped a public office she did not hold, by pretending to 14 conduct a summary finding of contempt of court, and ordered plaintiff imprisoned in the county
15 jail for six hours, and violated his rights and the rights of all of plaintiffs other clients. This 16 conduct was a violation of the plaintiffs state a federal constitutional rights and is tortious, and 17 was done with actual malice. It was maliciously and out of greed because she was paid by the 18 hour and if she was disqualified, she would not be able to submit billable hours.

19 All of these acts constitute the torts of malicious prosecution, assault and battery, false 20 imprisonment, and violation of the plaintiffs right to due process and equal protection, and 21 interference with contract that plaintiff had with other clients, and interference with prospective

1 advantage by driving off present and future clients out of fear of retaliation and reprisals from an 2 out of control public official.

4 Plaintiff provided written notice required under the Oregon Tort Claim Act in a timely 5 manner as required by law.

7 Defendant city of St. Helens was negligent for failing to properly vet the background of 8 the defendant Lindgren, and for not providing a pro tem judge to preside over Lindgren's 9 disqualification. The defendant was aware through its agents Matthew Brown, John Walsh, and 10 attorney Sam Erskin that a pro tem judge was needed, and it did not take appropriate steps to 11 assure that one was assigned. Defendant Erskin made a false representation after defendant 12 Lindgren attempted to reach the pro tem judge who had previously presided over a case that 13 defendant Lindgren was disqualified for, and he had no right to do so, his interference with the 14 disqualification was an abuse of process for a malicious and improper purpose and he had no
15 standing to object. Defendant Erskine made a false a malicious statement that the City of St.
16 Helens had no provision for pro tem judges, when in truth and in fact, the office of pro tem judge
17 is specifically established in the City Charter.

18 Wherefore, plaintiff prays for judgment in a sum to be proven at trial, not less than 19 $100,000 on all claims asserted in his personal behalf, and on behalf of the taxpayers for the City
20 of St. Helens in trust for the use and benefit of the taxpayers for the public purposes set forth 21 herein, in a sum that will be discovered prior to trial, against the defendant Amy Lindgren and 22 for any other public purpose the law allows. and for costs, and disbursements
